Small Private Accessions

1972–1997

999/1–999/850

The attached finding-aid lists all those small collections received from private and institutional donors between the years 1972 and 1997. The accessioned records are of a miscellaneous nature covering testamentary collections, National School records, estate collections, private correspondence and much more. The accessioned records may range from one single item to a collection of many tens of documents. All are worthy of interest.

The prefix 999 ceased to be used in 1997 and all accessions – whether large or small – are now given the relevant annual prefix. It is hoped that all users of this finding-aid will find something of interest in it. Paper print-outs of this finding-aid are to be found on the public shelves in the Niall McCarthy Reading Room of the National Archives. The records themselves are easily accessible.

Chief Secretary's Office: entry book of papers signed by the Lord Lieutenant, Lords Justices or Chief Secretary, 28 Aug. 1692–15 Feb. 1695/6.

The phrase 'Papers Signed' is written on the front cover of the book. The entries for 28 Aug. 1692–3 July 1693 are headed: 'Sir Cyrill Wich Chief Secretary to his Excellencie the Lord Viscount Sydney Lord Lieutenant of Ireland'.

Those for 6–27 July 1693 are headed 'Papers signed by Sir Charles Porter Lord Chancellor and Sir Cyrill Wich Lords Justices of Ireland'.

Those for 28 July 1693– 25 May 1695 are headed: 'Lord Capell, Sir Cyrill Wich and William Duncombe Esquire Lords Justices. Richard Aldworth Esquire Chief Secretary'.

Those for 28 May 1695–15 Feb. 1695/6 are headed: 'Lord Capell Lord Deputy. Richard Aldworth Esquire Chief Secretary'.

At the rear there is one page of entries of commissions to officers of the army sent out of England, 28 Aug. 1693–16 Feb. 1693/4.

The book contains about 175 pages and about 4,500 entries. The entries are brief one-line summaries of papers signed. They were written in a single hand, presumably that of either Arthur Podmore or Joshua Dawson, the clerks in the Chief Secretary's Office at the time, (J.G. Sainty, 'The Secretariat of the Chief Governors of Ireland, 1690–1800', R.I.A. Proc., lxxv, sect. C (1977), pp 16, 20–1 and 29).

The entries are in chronological order. They were entered under dates which are presumably the dates of signing. A second, later date, was added in the right hand margin of most entries. It would appear that this date related to the payment of fees. In many cases 'free' or 'pauper' was written instead. Paid for one already' was written after the entry of an order signed on 24 October 1694.

The main types of paper signed were: licences; references; passes for ships; orders for freedom from quartering; statement of arrears, unchequeing of soldiers and transportation; warrants for fiants for grants of land, presentations to livings, commissions in the army, appointments to offices, pensions and pardons. Many resulted from petitions which can be traced in the petitions entry book, Sept. 1692–July 1693 (P.R.O.I., WYCHE 1/5). Others resulted in the issue of letters patent which can be identified in the calendars of patent rolls (P.R.O.I. LODGE, Records of the Rolls, ix, and ROLLS OFFICE, Calendar of patent rolls, William and Mary).
